

40 GREAT GETAWAYS TO DRIVE IN YOUR CLASSIC

18 MAY

FELLSMAN CLASSIC TOUR

This enjoyable one-day outing that will cover in the region of 140 miles, and it all begins at Café Ambio on Junction 36 of the M6. From there you'll get to see the delights of Cumbria as you head towards the lakes at Coniston and Windermere and then on to Duddon Sands. You'll be ready for lunch back at the café, and it will set you up for the afternoon's driving that features more fine roads and scenery before the finish at Knowle Green near Longridge where a hot meal awaits. The tour is open to all classics, too.

£65 per car (LAC members),
£75 (non-members)
lancautoclub.com

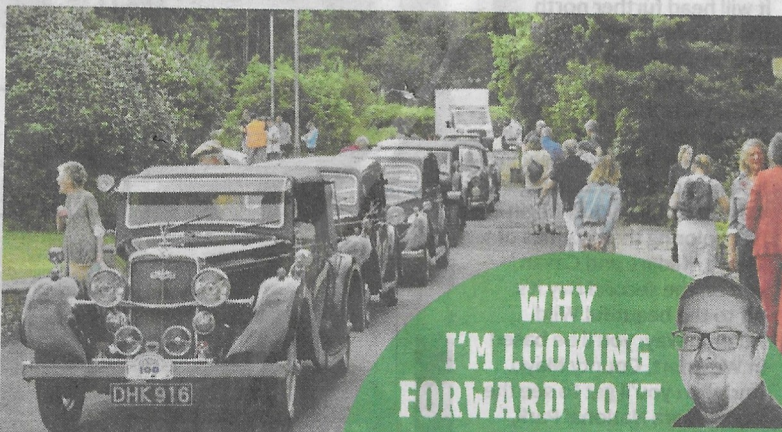

23 JUNE

KENDAL 100

This one sounds like fun and it re-creates a journey first undertaken at the beginning of the 1900s. The organisers have managed to use pretty much the original route from Kendal to Whalley, and you'll be covering about 50 miles during this step back into motoring history. It's a non-competitive event that's suitable for cars of all ages so you'll be welcomed whether you own a veteran or a more modern classic and it starts and finishes at Café Lazio at Salmesbury with the first car heading off at 10am. The day ends with a Concours d'Elegance judged by the Club President. A route book, rally plate and tasty refreshments are included in the entry fee, too.

£60 per car (LAC members),
£65 (non-members)
lancautoclub.com

WHY I'M LOOKING FORWARD TO IT

'This has all the right ingredients. The

What a cracking selection of cars, all of them perfect for this relaxed classic tour.

12-16 SEPTEMBER

WELSH TOUR

Like the Kendal 100 featured elsewhere, this cracking three-day tour is organised by the Lancashire Automobile Club and it proved to be extremely popular last year. Based in the stunning Conwy Valley in North Wales, it's the perfect blend of superb driving roads and breathtaking scenery, and it's a great chance to really explore the area. And while the exact route is still being finalised you can be sure that something special will be lined up. There are plenty of stops for refreshments and pictures and having attracted an interesting variety of classics last year yours will fit right in. The detailed route book ensures that you'll make the very best of what's on offer.

c.£900 per car
lancautoclub.com

