Introduction

Lancashire Automobile Club Kendal 100 The Return

Motorsport UK Permit No. CoE 134725

The North East Lancashire Automobile Club, which was to become the Lancashire Automobile Club, was established in 1902. The early events were ‘reliability trials’ intended to demonstrate to the public that the motor car was far more than a rich mans toy. The runs were to show that these new fangled vehicles were capable of serious use and were above all reliable.

One of the first runs was from Whalley to Kendal and back. Largely thanks to Nigel Bentley we have been able to determine the towns and villages the run passed through. Then, by overlaying maps from the late 1800’s/early 1900’s with today’s maps, we have largely determined as far as possible the actual roads used. This event recreates the original route from Kendal to Whalley (50 miles) as modern regulations prohibit ‘double use’ of roads the outward trip uses sections of roads from other LAC reliability trials.

The Route Book includes full written route instructions written very much in the style of the early events. Whilst the event is non competitive and untimed route has been devised so it can easily be completed at an average speed of 22 mph making it suitable for cars of most ages and capabilities.

The event is open to all types of car and age including Veteran, Edwardian, Vintage, Classic and more modern Cherished cars..

At the finish we will hold a simple Concours d’Elegance judged by the Club President. There is no requirement to take part in or to complete the Run to take part in the Concours.

The LAC has adopted the FBHVC ‘Tree-V’ environmental initiative that captures carbon dioxide generated by the entrants by contributing to the planting of trees in the UK. This will help to demonstrate the Club’s environmental commitment to potential sponsors and local authorities.

We look forward to seeing you in June.

Clerk of the Course

Please Note – Should we be unable to hold the event on this date the Lancashire Automobile Club will fully refund all entry fees.
